

Citing Sources According to MLA (8th ed.)

Use this guide to organize your Works Cited list and the parenthetical notes in the text of your essay. It is based on the following publication, which is available through the library: the MLA Handbook, 8th edition.

The eighth edition of the MLA Handbook outlines the core elements of a citation and the order that they should appear in all MLA citations regardless of format. In order and with the punctuation that follows, these core elements are:

1. Author.
2. Title of source.
3. Title of container,
4. Other contributors,
5. Version,
6. Number,
7. Publisher,
8. Publication date,
9. Location.

Use the core elements list to create citations for these and other formats. Examples of various resources formatted using MLA 8th edition citation style are listed below.
